Only Lausche Stems GOP Sweep In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes mounted a Republican tide that swamped Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and other Democratic state candidates in Ohio's election.

The GOP also elected Robert Taft Jr., as congressman - at-large to help strengthen its top-heavy Ohio congressional delegation, but U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, independent - minded Democrat, bucked the trend to win reelection.

Republicans retained control of both houses of the legislature on the basis of nearly complete returns.

An attempt to liberalize Ohio's constitutional ban on most Sunday business failed.

That was the story of Tuesday's heavy voting in the wake of one of the toughest gubernatorial campaigns in recent years.

Rhodes, 53, promised in a victory statement to push his programs for revenue bond-financed industrial development, educational expansion and help for the needy aged and delinquent young.

DiSalle, 54, said he felt as though a weight had been lifted from his shoulders. He pitched his campaign on welfare, educational and mental health programs requiring tax increases early a big boost pushed through in his four-year term.

Lausche, 66, former five-term governor and Cleveland mayor, defeated Republican John Marshall Briley, 57-year-old Toledo business executive turned politician. The senator entered a naval hospital in Bethesda, Md., a few days before the election. He is recovering from what aides termed exhaustion.

Taft, 45, son of the late U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, took the measure of Cleveland real estate man Richard D. Kennedy, 39, who is unrelated to the President.

The victory of Taft, majority floor leader in the Ohio House, and upsets in congressional districts gave Republicans an 18-6 margin over Democrats in the Ohio delegation. The present margin is 16-7.

Ohio gained a 24th congressman through the last federal census but his election was on a statewide basis for lack of a district to run in.

Oliver P. Bolton defeated Democratic Congressman Robert E. Cook in the 11th District of Northern Ohio to return the first mother-son team to the U.S. House. Mrs. Frances P. Bolton, his mother, won reelection in the neighboring 22nd District, a part of Cuyahoga County. Bolton returns to the House after a brief respite from politics.

In the 10th District of Southern Ohio, Republican Homer E. Abele upset Congressman Walter H. Moeller, Democrat seeking reelection.

But Democrats elected Robert T. Secrest to the 15th District seat he held before serving on the Federal Trade Commission and as Ohio commerce director. He defeated Congressman Tom V. Moorehead, Zanesville Republican.

Nearly complete returns showed Rhodes headed for a wider margin of victory than DiSalle chalked up four years ago in beating then GOP Gov. C. William O'Neill, now State Supreme Court judge, by nearly half a million votes.

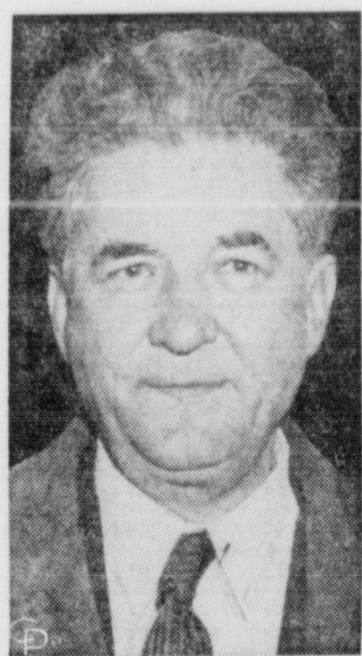

Rhodes captured the major counties of Cuyahoga, Franklin, Hamilton, Montgomery, Trumbull, Stark and Lucas, DiSalle's home county.

Rhodes lost strongly Democratic Mahoning County to DiSalle by only seven votes and Summit by a few hundred. Staunchly Democratic Pike County stuck by DiSalle by nearly a 2-1 margin.

But Rhodes edged DiSalle in Belmont, Lorain and Jefferson counties.

DiSalle collared all 13 of those counties in 1958. His margin in Cuyahoga County, a Democratic stronghold, was nearly 196,000 and in Lucas County more than 50,000.

Harsha Easy Winner In Congress Contest

Republican Congressman William H. Harsha Jr., Portsmouth attorney and farmer, was re-elected to his second term in the House of Representatives Tuesday by a big majority over his Democrat opponent.

Harsha, who carried eight of the nine counties in the 6th district, rolled up a 72,291 to 47,968 majority over Jerry C. Rasor, of Pickaway County, a television personality.

Rasor won only in heavily Democratic Pike County.

Harsha holds the congressional seat which the late James F. Polk a Democrat, occupied for 20 years.

The vote by counties follows:

Harsha Rasor
Adams	4,165 3,023
Brown	4,311 3,683
Clermont	14,478 8,668
Fayette	5,117 2,658

Ohio GOP Congress Edge Increased By Vote To 18-6

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio sends its largest group of representatives to the 88th Congress next year — a group even more heavily controlled by Republicans than the 16-7 break in the past congressional session.

Three upsets knocked incumbents out of office as the GOP gained an 18-6 margin among the 23 district races and the congressman-at-large.

The upsets came in the 10th District where Homer E. Abele, beaten in 1958, turned the tables on Democratic incumbent Walter H. Moeller; the 11th District where Republican Oliver P. Bolton of Mentor defeated incumbent Robert Cook, and in the 15th District where Democrat Robert T. Secrest ousted Tom V. Moorehead.

Two other new faces will be among the Ohio delegation.

Robert Taft Jr. gained the Buckeye State's congressman-at-large seat, easily defeating political unknown Richard D. Kennedy of Cleveland, Democrat, and former Cincinnati mayor Carl W. Rich, Republican, defeated Monica Nolan for the 1st District seat made vacant by the retirement of Republican Gordon Scherer.

Taft, 45, son of the late Ohio senator, took his first step into national politics after serving four terms in the Ohio House. He becomes the first congressman-at-large from Ohio in 12 years—a slot created by the 1960 census and the failure of the General Assembly to redistrict the state.

For both Bolton and Secrest the victories meant comeback: to Capitol Hill.

Bolton, 45, is the son of Rep. Frances P. Bolton, who was re-elected from the 22nd District, and the late Chester C. Bolton, who served five terms in Congress before his death in 1939.

The young Bolton was first elected a representative in 1948 and was re-elected for the following term.

Secrest, 58, one of only two Democrats since the turn of the century to overcome the Republican advantage in the seven-county southeastern district, was in Congress from 1933 to 1942 and again from 1949 to 1954.

Both Abele and Rich will be freshmen congressmen.

Abele's battle with Moeller was the last to be decided. The victor, 45, is a McArthur attorney who got his legislative training in the Ohio General Assembly, serving in the House in the 1949-51 sessions.

Rich, 64, served three terms as mayor of Cincinnati and more recently was elected twice to the Common Pleas Court bench. He resigned from the post to campaign for Congress.

Birchers Running Behind

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Three Republicans, who are members of the right-wing John Birch Society and seeking seats in Congress, appeared defeated. They are Reps. John H. Rousslet and Edgar W. Hiestand and H. L. Richardson.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, after a five-hour meeting Tuesday night with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, said glumly: "This one was not fruitful."

"The missiles are moving out and the talks are moving on," Stevenson said. But he gave no indication that the missiles and atomic jet bombers were leaving the Soviet Union.

Main stumbling block has been Prime Minister Fidel Castro's refusal to permit on-the-spot inspection of the missile sites by the United Nations, the International Committee of the Red Cross or any other foreign agency.

GOP Wins Industrial States But Nixon Fails Comeback

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats tightened their Senate control, sank Richard M. Nixon's California comeback bid but were blacked out of New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Ohio governorships in Tuesday's crazy quilt election.

The House lineup of the two parties seemed likely to depend on late tabulations from California. If these favored the Democrats who were in the lead in earlier returns, they might hold their 261-174 margin, otherwise Republicans might gain four to six.

In the Senate, the Democrats already had pushed their margin to 65-32 over the Republicans, a gain of one. They led in Alaska, Alabama and South Dakota contests in which the count remained incomplete.

President Kennedy's youngest brother, Edward M. Kennedy, 30, was an easy winner in the Massachusetts Senate race, defeating Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown claimed victory over Nixon in the California governor race.

Nixon, whose race against President Kennedy in 1960 was a near miss, refused to concede the defeat.

On the other side of the continent, GOP Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York led a re-election parade of Republicans who wrested governors' offices from the Democrats in the politically potent industrial states of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Ohio.

These, with New York, offer a Republican launching pad for the 1964 presidential contest with 119 of the 288 electoral votes needed for victory.

With his second-term victory, Rockefeller went to the head of the class of potential GOP nominees to oppose Kennedy in 1964. But a couple of newcomers also were possible enrollees—Govs.-elect George Romney of Michigan and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

In mixed up balloting that seemed to have turned on personalities rather than issues, Republicans were jolted in California, the Midwest, and in New England. They made some border state gains and picked up a few House seats in the South.

Democrats and Republicans traded governors' jobs at a furious pace. Republicans engineered overruns in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wyoming, Colorado and Oklahoma. Democrats retaliated by taking GOP governorships in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New Mexico, Iowa and Hawaii. In five undecided races, Democrats led in two, Republicans in three.

In Michigan, Romney, the former compact car maker, cut into the traditional Democratic stronghold on industrial Wayne County to knock Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson out of office.

In Ohio, State Auditor James A. Rhodes ploughed under Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. Robert Taft Jr. brought a famous name back to politics by winning a congress at-large race. Democratic Sen. Frank J. Lausche, often a critic of Kennedy's legislative proposals won re-election easily.

Multimillionaire Scranton made himself a man to be reckoned with in the Republican party by winning the governorship in a battle with Democrat Richardson Dilworth. But Democratic Sen. Joseph S. Clark weathered the GOP storm to win re-election.

In Massachusetts, Kennedy's big vote helped Democrat Endicott Peabody defeat GOP Gov. John A. Volpe.

In Connecticut, Abraham A. Ribicoff, President Kennedy's former secretary of welfare, rolled to a narrow victory in a contest with GOP Rep. Horace Seelye-Brown Jr., to take over the Senate seat vacated by the retirement of Republican Sen. Prescott Bush.

Romney Wins In Michigan

DETROIT (AP)—Automaker George Romney—a new face on the political horizon — captured Michigan's governorship today, ending 14 years of Democratic rule in the executive office.

Romney, 55, defeated Gov. John B. Swainson, 37, a legless veteran of World War II, by cutting sharply into the traditionally Democratic stronghold of Wayne (Detroit) County.

By defeating Swainson, who had the all-out backing of the powerful AFL-CIO organization, Romney automatically became a dark-horse contender for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

Romney's victory appeared to be a one-man show.

It was indicated that American diplomats would continue talks with the Russians here, but no date was set for a new meeting.

The United States reportedly has told the Soviet Union it will not accept Castro's adamant stand as an excuse for the Russians not living up to Khrushchev's pledge.

The Soviets have informed the Americans the promise still stands but cited trouble in dealing with the bumpy Cuban leader.

Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan met with Castro in Havana Tuesday night for possibly his last attempt to get Castro to fall in line.

There was no official indication of how the four-day-old talks were progressing, but the impression in Havana was that Mikoyan would leave for Moscow soon to be on hand for his wife's funeral Friday.

It could not be learned at the U.N. whether Mikoyan would stop in New York to report on his talks with Castro or fly direct to Moscow.

One bright spot in the picture was indication that the plan for Red Cross inspection of Cuba-bound Soviet ships was about to get under way.

Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant scheduled meetings today with envoys of the United States, the Soviet Union, and Cuba to iron out final arrangements for the operation.

City School Levy Passes By 71 Pct.

Washington C. H. District voters approved the renewal of a 2-mill operating levy by an overwhelming majority at the polls Tuesday.

The final official Election Board count was 3,019 for the levy and 1,225 against.

Only a simple majority was required for passage, but the tax measure received a whopping 71-plus per cent favorable vote.

The 2-mill levy will raise approximately $52,000 annually during the next 10 years. A 1-mill operating levy expires next year and a 5-mill levy expires in 1964.

The levy renewal carried in 18 of the 19 city precincts with majorities up to more than 5 to 1. Only defeat was in Precinct 1-E where the vote was 64 for the measure and 76 against.

HERE IS the vote by precincts:

First Ward: A — For 130, against 39; B — For 137, against 46; C — For 139, against 53; D — For 118, against 93; E — For 64, against 76; F — For 65, against 46.

Second Ward: A — For 170, against 68; C — For 141, against 53; D — For 256, against 69; E — For 81, against 31. (There is no B precinct in the Second Ward.)

Third Ward: A — For 174, against 80; B — For 294, against 96; C — For 141, against 76; D — For 279, against 50.

Fourth Ward: A — For 114, against 40; B — For 209, against 84; C — For 146, against 77; D — For 128, against 64; E — For 231, against 83.

Union South: For 2, against 1.

DiSalle Is Back On Job, But Appears Shook Up

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle was back at his office this morning despite his defeat for re-election by James A. Rhodes.

The governor must have been a bit shaken up.

He left his car lights burning when he parked it in the State-house parking lot.

Commissioner Race Margin Only 18 Votes

Lawrence, Defeated Candidate, Says Recount Doubtful

Democrat Robert J. Mace won the race for county commissioner Tuesday by a narrow 18-vote margin, defeating Republican Max Lawrence 3,956 to 3,938.

Lawrence said Wednesday morning he doubts if he will seek a recount. However, he said he wants to consult with party leaders before deciding definitely.

If it was a cliffhanger throughout the evening as results from Fayette County's 42 polling places poured into the Board of Elections.

At 11 p.m. when unofficial telephone returns were all in it appeared Mace had won by a paper thin margin of six votes. But the tally of official returns boosted the difference to 18.

A tabulation of votes by precincts in races of major interest to Fayette Countians will be found on Page 2.

At 11 p.m. when unofficial telephone returns were all in it appeared Mace had won by a paper thin margin of six votes. But the tally of official returns boosted the difference to 18.

REPUBLICANS and Democrats split the other two county races.

Mrs. Evelyn W. Coffman, Republican, will become the county's first woman judge, defeating Reed M. Winegardner 4,039 to 3,626 in the contest for judge of Common Pleas Court. Mrs. Coffman will succeed Judge John P. Case, the incumbent, whom she defeated in the Republican primary.

Virtus J. Kruse, Democrat, won a third term as state representative, defeating Republican Belcarpenter 4,599 to 3,176.

Harry R. Allen, Republican, unopposed for re-election as county auditor, received a complimentary vote of 5,933.

LOREN B. JOHNSON, clerk of the Board of Elections, said the board will meet later in the week, probably Friday, to conduct the official canvass. Candidates will have five days after the canvass in which to apply for recounts.

Mace's apparent election gives the Democrats control of the Board of County Commissioners. He will succeed Clifford Hughes, Republican, who did not seek reelection.

Holdover commissioners are Lawrence (Bucky) Dumford, Democrat, and Marilyn Riley, Republican.

Coffee Break..

HUNDREDS of telephone calls came into The Record-Herald office Tuesday night from Fayette Countians anxious to learn the latest "score" in the many races.

For their generous assist in keeping the returns up-to-the-moment, we thank Albert Bryant, David Six, Dr. Fred Woolard and Richard Rankin...

OCTA was first...

Fayette County's biggest little village took the honors in reporting results of Tuesday's election... The telephone report came in to the Board of Elections from the precinct at 7:15 p.m., just 45 minutes after the polls closed...

Ten minutes later Wayne East reported... And at 7:45 p.m., the first Washington C. H. precinct, 2-E, reported... Then the deluge began... By 9:20, when Wayne West reported, half of the 42 precincts in the county had called in their reports... Last precinct to report was 3-B... This was at 11 p.m.

One veteran election worker described the count as the easiest in his 30 years experience... All agreed that it was a far easier election than the primary when many offices had whole squads of candidates on both tickets...

The total vote was 8,275... This topped the 8,147 in 1958, the last comparable election year... As had been expected, the turnout was short of the record 11,185 who voted in the 1960 presidential election...

An estimated 15,220 persons are eligible to vote in Fayette County...

Clinton School Merger Issue Defeated

Area Vote Results

Clinton County

WILMINGTON — A controversial four-way school consolidation proposal which would have merged the Sabina, Simon Kenton, New Vienna and Martinsville districts, was soundly defeated at the polls Tuesday.

The unofficial tally was 2,126 against the proposal and 1,065 for it.

Major opposition came from Sabina which voted against the consolidation, 940 to 55. Richland Twp. in which Sabina is situated, voted against the merger, 306 to 80.

In the only two races on the Clinton County ticket, Republican State Legislator Max H. Dennis defeated his Democrat challenger, Frank Seaman, 5,063 to 4,279, and Republican Commissioner Robert Stewart was re-elected over Paul Friend, Democrat, 5,723 to 3,265.

Congressman Clarence J. Brown who defeated Democrat Robert A. Riley in the 7th district, received 6,907 votes to 2,845 for his opponent in Clinton County.

A 65-mill levy to support Clinton Memorial Hospital was approved, 5,570 to 3,842.

Sabina voters defeated two 3-mill levies, one for operation (364 for an 478 against) and the other for street repairs (429 for and 504 against).

Blancaster, New Vienna, Martinsville and Clinton — Massie districts approved school levies and Martinsville village voters rejected a 4-mill levy.

Pickaway County

CIRCLEVILLE — Pickaway County voters returned Democrat Ed Wallace to a seventh term in the General Assembly Tuesday and turned down a 1½-mill levy for expansion of Berger Hospital. Wallace defeated Darrell Hatfield, Republican, 4,837 to 4,515. The hospital levy lost, 4,319 to 4,539.

Republican Wayne Hines upset Democratic Commissioner Charles Morris Jr., 4,860 to 4,355, and Democrat Marvin H. Rhoades was re-elected county auditor, defeating Lawrence R. Liston, 5,422 to 3,964.

Westfall School District approved a 4-mill tax levy and Logan Elm District a 5-mill levy.

Greeneview District

JAMESTOWN — A $65,100 bond issue for constructing a gymnasium addition at the Greeneview High School was approved by voters of the district at the polls Tuesday.

The unofficial vote, complete except for fringe areas, was 857 for the issue and 660 against.

A 2½-mill Greeneview operation levy was approved by a vote of 948 to 580.

Mt. Sterling

MT. STERLING — Voters here approved a $25,000 bond issue for a new fire truck and other fire-fighting equipment and a five-year 2.9-mill tax levy for operating expenses at the polls Tuesday.

The fire issue passed 309 to 219, and the tax levy 303 to 214. A 55 per cent margin was required for the bond issue and a simple majority for the levy.

The levy represents both the renewal of an existing tax and an increase.

Madison County

LONDON — William Bell, Democrat commissioner, defeated Amos Cordle, his Republican opponent, by 139 votes Tuesday in Madison County's most hotly contested race.

Sam Landis, a Republican, was re-elected state representative.

A 2.1-mill operating levy asked by the City of London and a 2-mill operating levy for the London school system were approved.

Ross County

CHILLICOTHE — Emerson Brown, Republican, ousted Democrat Dr. William A. Hirsch from the Board of County Commissioners here Tuesday. Brown's margin was approximately 2,000 votes.

Orville J. Barrett, Republican, piled up a 600-vote majority over Democrat Robert Corrigan for the county auditor post left vacant by the death of William G. Marsh.

Merle H. Shoemaker, Democrat, was elected his third term as state representative. He defeated Max V. Baughman, Republican, a Chillicothe school teacher.

A half-mill county health levy was defeated. The Health Department has been broke since Oct. 22.

Highland County

HILLSBORO — Highland County voters turned down a 25-mill tax levy for the Health Department, 4,877 to 4,539, but they approved a 25-mill levy for a school for the mentally retarded, 6,355 to 3,335, in Tuesday's election.

A proposal to consolidate the Rainbow School District with the Greenfield School District was defeated by a narrow margin of 172 to 166. This was the third time the consolidation proposal failed to get approval.

A proposal for a 2-mill levy to run five years for operations of the village of Highland was passed 80 to 18, and renewal of a 2-mill levy for five years for operations was approved 390 to 57 by Leesburg voters.

Highland Countians gave James A. Rhodes 6,786 votes for governor and Governor Michael V. DiSalle, 3,545.

James Hapner (Republican incumbent) was reelected to the State Legislature over Willis Jones (Democrat) 6,434 to 3,354.

Hugh Turner (Republican) unseated Clarence Larkin (Democrat) on the board of county commissioners 5,005 to 4,894.

John McCreight (Republican) was re-elected county auditor over Robert Carson (Democrat) 6,540 to 3,195.

Frankfort

FRANKFORT—Three levies, two of them for the benefit of Frankfort Village and the other for the Frankfort School District, were approved by local voters Tuesday.

The 1.6-mill school levy passed by a vote of 517 to 295.

A 1½-mill street-lighting levy was approved, 238 to 95, and a half-mill operating levy passed, 219 to 111.

Red China Offers Deal On Border

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China announced today its readiness—under certain conditions—to withdraw its troops 12½ miles north of the McMahon line on the eastern sector of India's border.

The McMahon line, drawn by a British diplomat in 1914, is regarded by India as her border with Tibet, now occupied by Red China.

The two sides do not agree just where the McMahon line lies, however.

On the western sector of the border in Ladakh, Red China's Premier Chou En-lai said the line to which Red Chinese troops have advanced "coincides in the main with the traditional, customary line which has been consistently pointed out by China."

The Red Chinese are estimated to have taken about 2,500 square miles in their current offensive, and now control all but about 500 miles of the 15,000 square miles they claim in the area.

Red China's proposal was made in a letter from Premier Chou which the New China News Agency said was sent to Prime Minister Nehru on Nov. 4.

It was described as an elaboration on the proposal to withdraw to the "actual line of control" and then disengage by withdrawing 12½ miles from that line on each side.

Cleveland Mayor To Drop 'Acting'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Acting Mayor Ralph S. Locher soon can drop the "acting" from his title as a result of his smashing 3-1 victory over Republican Willard W. Brown in Cleveland's mayoral election Tuesday.

Locher, who bucked the party organization here to win a three-way primary Oct. 2, will have to return to the political wars next fall. His contest with Brown was for the one year remaining in the term of Anthony J. Celebrezze, who left the job last summer to become U.S. secretary of health, education and welfare.

Lone Negro Candidate In Ohio Is Defeated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The only Negro running for major office in Ohio has been defeated.

Leotis Harris, a Republican, was beaten in his try to oust four-term Democratic U.S. Rep. Charles A. Vanik in Ohio's 21st Congressional District, located in Cleveland and Cuyahoga County. Harris, a real estate examiner in Cleveland, is a political science graduate of Western Reserve University. He currently is a senior at Cleveland Marshall Law School.

She will assume office Feb. 8.

KRUSE RAN his best race yet in winning a third term in the State Legislature. He defeated Carpenter in both the city and the county. The counts were 2,424 to 1,789 in the city and 2,175 to 1,387 in the county.

The Democratic legislator took all but four precincts, two in the city and two in the county. These were 1-A and 1-C in the city and Plymouth and Wayne West in the county.

Except for U. S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, who topped John Marshall Briley 4,344 to 3,537, Fayette County voters gave heavy margins to Republican candidates for district and state offices.

On the constitutional amendment relative to Sunday closings, county voters were in overwhelming opposition. The count was 3,034 "yes," 4,903 "no."

Ted Kennedy Defeats Lodge

Another Of Family Sent To Washington

By TOM HENSHAW
BOSTON (AP)—Edward M. Kennedy, the President's kid brother, has scored a smashing triumph over Republican George C. Lodge to win his brother's old seat in the U.S. Senate.

The President was quoted as being "extremely pleased."

The Kennedy landslide Tuesday promised to surpass the 511,000-vote margin rolled up by his brother two years ago when he won the presidency.

The 30-year-old baby of the politically potent Kennedy clan rolled up such a margin in his first race for public office that he carried fellow Democrat Endicott Peabody to an upset victory for governor over the incumbent Gov. John A. Volpe.

The only Republican candidate for a statewide office to survive the Kennedy Democratic sweep was Attorney General-elect Edward W. Brooke, who will be the first Negro to hold a major office in Massachusetts.

For the Kennedy family, it was a victory in round 4 of a 46-year-old feud at the polls with the Lodge family.

President Kennedy defeated George's father, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., for the same Senate seat in 1952. He beat him again in 1960 when the elder Lodge ran for vice president against a Democratic ticket led by Kennedy.

Back in 1916, the original Henry Cabot Lodge, George's great-grandfather, turned back a Senate bid by John F. Fitzgerald, grandfather of the Kennedys.

Another name senatorial candidate, Harvard Prof. H. Stuart Hughes, grandson of the late Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, trailed far behind. Campaigning as an independent on a "disarmament and ban the bomb" platform, Hughes polled fewer than 50,000 votes.

Soviet Told To Back Up Khrush Pledge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Authoritative sources report the United States has told the Soviet Union it must make good on Premier Khrushchev's pledge to remove offensive weapons from Cuba under international inspection—Fidel Castro notwithstanding.

The Soviet Union, in turn, has passed the word back to Washington that although the Cuban prime minister poses difficulties, Khrushchev's promise still stands.

This exchange, the sources reported Tuesday, is the gist of secret U.S.-Soviet talks being carried on in New York while the United States maintains diplomatic and military pressure for a Cuban settlement.

Castro opposes any foreign check within Cuba on removal of nuclear-capable missiles and bombers. Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan has been in Havana since last weekend, talking to Castro and — presumably — trying to get him to change his mind.

Developments in the Cuban crisis remained hidden from view under a lid of government secrecy. Inquiries on the progress of diplomatic negotiations and on weapons withdrawal are met with an official reply of "no comment."

precincts, losing only in Jeffersonville A and Wayne West and piling up a 2,450 to 1,818 lead in the rural areas.

Lawrence's strength was in the city where he won 2,158 to 1,488, capturing 15, losing in two, 1-D and 1-E, and tying in 4-D.

The race for Common Pleas judge was somewhat the same with Mrs. Coffman winning heavily, 2,425 to 1,746, in the city and trailing by a 1,880 to 1,614 margin in the county.

She captured all but two city precincts, 1-E and 3-D. In the rural areas, Winegardner led in all but six. These were Waterloo, West Holland, Bloomingburg Village, Perry, Union East and Wayne West.

She will assume office Feb. 8.

KRUSE RAN his best race yet in winning a third term in the State Legislature. He defeated Carpenter in both the city and the county. The counts were 2,424 to 1,789 in the city and 2,175 to 1,387 in the county.

NO OPPOSITION -- Harry R. Allen will begin his second four-year term as county auditor March 11. Allen, a Republican, was unopposed in Tuesday's election, but he received a complimentary vote of 5,983. He was appointed to fill a vacancy in the office and then was elected to a two-year term. He has now held the office seven years.

HOW THE WEATHER LOOKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Clouds and rain moved into Western Ohio Tuesday night, although it remained clear to the east.

Temperatures were below freezing where skies were clear, with Youngstown reporting 31 and Zanesville 28. In the west, Cincinnati reported 42, Toledo 41 and Findlay 40.

Winds will be southerly over the state today as a weak front approaches from the west. Cloudiness and showers will reach the central counties late this morning and cover the entire state by evening.

The rain should end tonight except in the southeastern counties.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average about three degrees below normal. Normal high 53-59, normal low 34-38. Cool Friday, moderating slightly but turning cooler on weekend. Rainfall will total about one-fourth inch in showers tonight, again on weekend.

British Tag U.S. Election Win For JFK

LONDON (AP)—British papers today interpreted the American midterm elections as a victory for President Kennedy and the end of the road for his old rival Richard M. Nixon.

Lord Beaverbrook's conservative London Evening Standard said: "President Kennedy's Democratic party has won a solid victory in the congressional and state elections. But although the party retains absolute control of the Senate and the House of Representatives, its successes do not appear big enough to allow the President to put over his liberal domestic program."

The Evening News, conservative, said: "For President Kennedy the election is both good and bad. On his purely personal side he had the satisfaction of seeing his 30-year-old brother win the Massachusetts Senate seat—which he himself had held by a majority of nearly two to one."

In Rome, hundreds of Americans and Italians telephoned The Associated Press asking for election results. Almost all seemed interested in the gubernatorial race in California.

Mother-Son Team Sent To Congress

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The only mother-son team in the history of Congress is about to join forces again.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton of suburban Cleveland was re-elected Tuesday. Her son, Oliver P. Bolton, was elected to Congress after a self-imposed six-year layoff because of a heart attack.

Bolton will represent his old district, Ohio's 11th. His mother will continue to represent the 22nd District. Bolton defeated the Democratic incumbent, Robert Cook of Ravenna. Bolton is a Mentor resident.

Fostoria-Tiffin Bank Merger Given Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tri-County National Bank now can operate in Fostoria and Tiffin, Ohio, after a self-imposed six-year layoff because of a heart attack.

Bolton will represent his old district, Ohio's 11th. His mother will continue to represent the 22nd District. Bolton defeated the Democratic incumbent, Robert Cook of Ravenna. Bolton is a Mentor resident.

How High On Totem Pole?

NEW YORK (AP)—How high is your place on the office totem pole?

Are you still climbing up, or slowly sliding down?

Sometimes it is hard for a fellow himself to be sure. The measurements between success and failure are often subtle in the modern business world.

But here is a handy guide of hints that point the way. You are probably getting to be a poohbah in your firm if—

You get your haircuts on company time without a feeling of guilt—or that you are putting something over on someone.

You spend an hour to two hours at lunch, and no longer bring it to work in a paper bag.

If your swivel chair develops a creak, somebody promptly oils it for you without being asked.

They take you off the once-a-week payroll and put you on the once-a-month payroll.

The guy who used to be on the rung above you no longer steals your ideas and palms them off as his own. You steal his.

If the company has a parking lot, there is a space reserved for your car.

You get more and more sealed interoffice memos marked "important," "private" and "strictly confidential." In the old days you only got missives like that from your friendly neighborhood loan shark.

The elevator operator asks your opinion on business conditions and what baseball team in the National League looks good for 1963.

You give up bowling and take up golf.

There is only one buzzer on your desk that you have to respond to, but there are three buzzers you can push and make others jump.

When you want to see the boss, his secretary no longer keeps you cooling your heels while she tells him who you are. She smiles and says, "Go right in—he's waiting." You spend more time reading the stock market reports than you do the sports pages.

The office boy says, "Yes, sir," instead of whining, "For Pete's sake, what do you want now?"

Fellow office workers who used to think you were the inside dope now ask you what the inside dope really is. Your wallet contains more new credit cards than old unpaid bills.

At home, the wife starts ordering more clothes for herself, and tells the kids to carry out the garbage to enable you to conserve your strength. Your dog wags his tail instead of barking at you as you enter. He senses your new importance—and hopes for better chow.

Yes, by these signs you can tell whether you have become a figure that must be reckoned with in the office—or whether you are still the same old, dreaming, white-collar zero.

'Easy Money' Ads Inflate Elder Hopes

A number of ads these days dangle the hope of easy money for retired people.

Here's one that's been running for years in various magazines. It says, "Mailman Brings Us $150 Daily. Ideal Mail Order Business for Retired People. Write for Information."

When I answered the ad, a letter by return mail assured me that the secrets of mail order success could be mine by ordering four books which had a regular value of $10.96, but which, if I hurried, would cost only $5.00.

So I sent in the money and the four books are now before me. They are actually mimeographed brochures, and while they are put together rather well, I doubt if they have ever enabled anyone to turn his mailman into a money tree.

The first brochure gives general data about the mail order industry. The next one gives case stories of folks who have purportedly made big money by ordering such items as cigarette lighters and salt-and-pepper shakers from manufacturers and re-selling them by mail.

Another book tells you how to make up letters and mailing pieces describing what you've got to sell. And the last book lists companies here and abroad from which you can presumably buy items at wholesale, for re-sale to mail order customers.

It is conceivable that this information might assist a determined, aggressive soul in launching a successful mail order business. But I think the promoter is guilty of misrepresentation and gross exaggeration in suggesting in his ad that this is an ideal occupation for retired people.

The mail order business has become an enormously competitive and difficult field, peopled with brainy specialists who know its intricacies, have plenty of financing, and harbor a firm grasp on advertising, pricing, and distribution principles. The average retired couple seeking to compete with these boys hasn't much of a chance.

IT WASN'T so many years ago that the well-heeled were content to spend their vacations at home or at nearby resorts. If they had seen Europe once, and if they were able to take a trip across the country every few years, they were satisfied.

But these days everyone seems intrigued by travel — big travel. At this moment I have acquaintances who are enjoying autumn vacations at thrift rates in such far-flung places as Greece, Russia, Japan and Hawaii.

They're not rich, but they've saved their pennies and are intent on seeing the world. Their motivation is probably influenced by the fact that big travel has become something of a status symbol. If you didn't just get back from Russia, or if you're not making plans to leave for Japan, you're just not in tune with the jet age.

AN OLD-TIMER observed that when he was young it was wine, women, and song. "But now," said he, "it's diets, matrons, and Sing Along With Mitch."

A weight saving of one pound in a jet engine's compressor rotor blades may save up to five additional pounds in supporting members.

When pygmies of French West Africa bag an elephant, they move their village to the carcass for easy access to food.

Dear Abby:

Start Living Now!

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother recently passed away and I am left to care for the family house and my 80-year-old father. I am the youngest of three daughters (I am 30) and the two older ones are married. I cannot go out and enjoy an evening because neither of my sisters will relieve me and my father refuses to have a "stranger" stay with him. I asked our doctor and he said it was my duty to care for my father as long as he lives and, when he dies, the house will belong to me. Abby, I don't want this house. What good will it be with all the unhappy memories? Our family lawyer said the same thing. I held an office job and was happy then, but I am miserable now. What should I do?

PRISONER
DEAR PRISONER: Tell your sisters (AND the family doctor and lawyer) that you do not intend to wait until your father dies to start living. If neither of your sisters will sit with your father one or two nights a week, ask the family doctor and lawyer if they would like to. Expect a negative answer and line up a "sitter." If you remain a prisoner, you have no one to blame but yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I have never heard of a Western Wedding where the bride and groom were hitched on horseback. But I did know of a wedding where the groom had a gun in his back.

BEST MAN

DEAR ABBY: The woman signed "NEAT AND CLEAN"—who hesitated to marry a man who did manual labor because he might come home in greasy overalls—can have my husband. He is always neat and clean. He is handsome, seldom sober, has no character and he treats me like a slob. He works in an office. I have never seen him with a speck of dirt on him. After work (I work out, too) I do the housework and the gardening. My husband is so neat and clean that if I ask him to carry out the garbage he goes pale. I'm not kidding. I'd welcome the sight of dirty, greasy overalls on my husband. At least it would mean he had been doing something to justify his existence. I would be proud to say that my husband was a "common laborer." It would make him sound like a real man.

NOT AFRAID OF DIRT

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—This was a catch-as-catch-can election.

It showed no sign of any real change in the national mood. But it did reveal a lot of discontent among voters toward their state parties or individuals.

Nor could President Kennedy or former President Eisenhower claim any infallible political magic. Both campaigned for their party candidates in a number of states. In some their side won, in some it lost.

The national mood was expressed in 1960 when the Democrats were given control of the federal government. Voters could have swept them out Tuesday, if they were dissatisfied, and given the Republicans control of Congress.

This didn't happen. The Democrats went into this election with huge majorities in House and Senate. And, just as predicted, when the election was over they still retained them.

The reason was pretty clear. In this campaign there was no real issue dividing the country or compelling the voters to seek a new national direction. This much was probably good news for Kennedy.

But it won't make his task of trying to get Congress to accept his domestic programs any easier. The Democratic-run Congress was conservative before the election. It remains so because the changes there were so few.

It was in the states that the discontent and upsets showed. They were most startling in those rock-ribbed Republican states of Vermont and New Hampshire where Democrats, for the first time in generations, were elected governors.

In Vermont it was Phillip H. Hoff, the first Democrat sent to the state house in 108 years. In New Hampshire it was John W. King, the first Democrat so chosen in 40 years.

But in Michigan and Oklahoma the upsets went the other way. In Michigan George Romney was the first Republican elected governor in 14 years. In Oklahoma the first Republican ever was made governor. This was Henry Bellmon.

Eisenhower had campaigned in New Hampshire, Kennedy in Michigan. But Kennedy also went to Connecticut where his friend and fellow-Democrat, Abraham Ribicoff, was elected to the Senate. And Eisenhower talked in Pennsylvania where a Republican, William M. Scranton, was elected governor.

A prime example of voters' switching around showed up in Ohio where a Democrat, Sen. Frank J. Lausche, was re-elected, but Republican James A. Rhodes defeated Gov. Michael V. DiSalle for the state house.

The best all around news for the Republicans was the fact they had governors elected in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Michigan, all big states which should give the party needed strength in the 1964 presidential race.

Early today the biggest casualty of the election appeared to be former Vice President Richard M. Nixon who sought the governorship of California held by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

It was taken as granted, before

Nixon ever made his bid there, that if he lost he was through as a national political figure.

Nelson A. Rockefeller, by his re-election as governor of New York, seemed as of now to have the inside track for the Republican presidential nomination two years from now.

TV Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There must be some deep significance in the new Nielsen ratings, which estimate the size of television audiences, released Tuesday.

They reveal that a comedy show, unobtrusively loaded with corny humor and preposterous situations, "Beverly Hillbillies," is now the most popular television program in the nation. Such worthy, complimented and "better" programs as the musical "Voice of Firestone" are hopelessly floundering near the bottom of the long, long list.

As a matter of fact, there is a sharp indication in the authoritative ratings that the television public turns on its set primarily in hope of being amused and lightly entertained. In the listing of today's 11 most popular programs, seven are straight comedy.

"Beverly Hillbillies" is followed closely by "The Lucy Show," another comedy with a base of broad humor. Others are Red Skelton, "Candid Camera," Danny Thomas, Andy Griffith and Dick Van Dyke. There are also two medical shows on the elite list, "Ben Casey" and "Dr. Kildare," and one Western, "Bonanza."

The emergence of comedy as the nation's currently favorite type of show has some unhappy effects on the competition. For instance, Perry Como's variety hour has lost a lot of its audience. "The Untouchables" isn't doing as well as its competition, Jack Benny.

It also appears that the programs were wrong when they decided this was the year when the public would be ready for some World War II stories. Neither "Combat" nor "The Gallant Men," both hour-long series about infantrymen which were supposed to start a new trend, are doing very well: both have ratings behind Western rivals on other networks.

Recommended tonight: "Circle Theatre," CBS, 10-11 (EST); "Tunnel to Freedom," dramatized version of an escape under the wall from East Berlin.

High-Speed Helicopter Put Into Navy Service

QUONSET POINT, R.I. (AP)—The U.S. Navy has put a high-speed helicopter with twin engines and a boat hull into service as part of its antisubmarine squadron.

In an announcement today, the Navy said the old "Sea Bat" has been replaced at Quonset by the "Sea King."

The Sea King is capable of locating, identifying and destroying with its own depth charges enemy subs beneath the surface, the Navy said.

Camp Fire Girls Have Leaders Training Meet

The first of three training sessions for leaders of all three classifications of Camp Fire Girls was held Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Auditorium. The next two meetings will be on Nov. 13 and 20 for the same time and place.

Mrs. Harry Myer of Grove City is giving the instruction. Mrs. Myer has had twenty years experience in Camp Fire work on the local, state, and national levels. At the first session she gave the historical development and organization of Camp Fire Girls. In the afternoon she gave instruction in songs for all three groups and musical games. She also showed and listed resource materials which leaders may use to plan worthwhile programs. Finally, she explained ranks and honors and the honor beads which the girls may earn, and described the various costumes of the three divisions.

Raymond Morton, local president, greeted the leaders at the opening of the meeting and gave an inspirational talk describing the goals of Camp Fire Girls.

Mrs. Morton, local staff secretary, announced a new group in Greenfield, and introduced the leader, Mrs. Virgil Keplinger, and her assistant, Miss Iris Keplinger.

Leaders are to get candy for the girls on Thursday, Nov. 8, between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Beryl Smith, 1212 E. Temple. Camp Fire candy sale will begin Friday and continue for two weeks.

The Junior Hi girls will be given a tour of the Kahiki Restaurant on Saturday, Dec. 8, at 9:30 a.m. December 6th from 6 to 9 p.m. there will be a skating party at Roller Haven for all girls in the three divisions.

Reservations must be in the office Friday for the Annual Banquet to be held at St. Andrew's Parish Hall the evening of Nov. 15.

The Blue Bird leaders who attended the first session were Mrs. Vernon Clay, Mrs. Robert Steiner and Mrs. John Miller. Camp Fire Leaders were Mrs. Joe Shoemaker, Mrs. Dean Trimmer, Mrs. Sam Roush, Mrs. Robert Satchell, Mrs. Robert Rowland, Mrs. Jean T. Craig, Mrs. James Greene, Mrs. Fred James, Mrs. Rollo Marchant, Mrs. Joseph Hobbie, Mrs. Beryl Smith, Mrs. Elston Bellar, Mrs. Virgil Keplinger, Miss Iris Keplinger and Mrs. Raymond Morton.

The Junior Hi group leader who attended was Mrs. Merrill Lynch.

Purity Chapter Honors

Mrs. Watts, Grand Page

Mrs. Edna Watts, alternate grand page for the 1962 Grand Chapter Session of the Order of Eastern Star was honored by members of Purity Chapter, New Holland, with a covered dish dinner Tuesday night at the Masonic Temple preceding the business meeting. Tables seating the guests were centered with cornucopias and favors of Pilgrim hats marked the places. The invocation was given by Mrs. Ida Gooley. Mrs. John Baird, deputy grand matron of district 23 was a guest.

Mrs. Watts and Mr. Thomas, worshipful master of the New Holland F&AM were presented and invited to the East.

Mrs. Harold Thompson, worthy matron, conducted the business session, giving an account of the recent benefit style show whose proceeds will be added to the carpet fund.

Following the acceptance of a gift for the chapter by Mrs. Thompson from Mrs. Gooley, a memorial service was held for Carl Binns and Mrs. Mildred Wilson, deceased members.

The following announcements were made by the worthy matron: Installation of officers at Bloomington, Nov. 7; Installation of Royal chapter officers, Nov. 12 and the Line Officers Association meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 18, in the New Holland Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Iola Gifford, worthy matron elect, announced her installation will be held at 8 p.m., Nov. 15, and gave the names of committee members for that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, worthy patron and matron, thanked the officers and members for their support during the year. Reports of the Acacia Session of the Grand Chapter session, held in Cleveland recently was given by Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Gifford.

The committee for the evening was composed of Mrs. Mable Dick, Mrs. Marian Roth and Mrs. Frances McQuay.

Mrs. Shoemaker Entertains Club

Mrs. Cecil Shoemaker, Greenfield Road, a most gracious hostess, entertained The Stitch and Chatter Kensington club Monday afternoon.

A coverlet to be sent to the Kiamichi Mountain folk has been completed and the afternoon was spent over various articles of needlework.

Mrs. Shoemaker served a most delectable and seasonal dessert course to her guests.

Sharing in the pleasant afternoon were Mrs. Claude Davis, Mrs. William Buchanan, Mrs. Ralph Hays, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. John Case, Mrs. Ernest Brookover, Mrs. Warren Bryan, Mrs. Thomas Willis, Mrs. Ulric Acton and Mrs. John G. Jordan.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Acton on Dec. 3.

Class Selects New Officers

Miss Marie Marchant was elected president of the Leadership Training Class, First Presbyterian Church, when they met at the home of Mrs. Charles Mustine Tuesday night. Other officers elected are Mrs. Ronald Cornwell, vice-president, Mrs. Robert Heron, treasurer and Mrs. David Adams, secretary.

Mrs. Jerry Grundies gave the opening devotion and a story on Thanksgiving.

A report of the dinner served to 72 high school students and advisors on BIE Day was given and announcement made that the class had purchased a steel cart and installed stainless steel in the church kitchen.

Plans for helping a needy family at Christmas time were made. The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Dellinger.

Mrs. Mustine was assisted in serving refreshments at the close of the meeting by Miss Marchant.

Sorority Meets At Chaney Home

Mrs. Earl Downs, president, led in the opening ritual when members of Zeta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority met at the home of Miss Janice Chaney Monday night.

During the business meeting, a letter was read from Mrs. Robert Wilson thanking the sorority for their help in the October visit of the bloodmobile unit which the sorority sponsored. A report was given on the candle sales and it was requested that all orders be in by Wednesday. The budget for the year was read and approved by the members.

Mrs. Charles Cox brought to the attention of the sorority the coming Ladies Nite sponsored by the Kiwanis with Marj Heyduck, the guest speaker.

Miss Kathy Allen introduced the program for the evening, "Giving and Receiving Friends hip," which was presented by Mrs. Cox, who gave examples of friendship between famous people of history, and from the Bible. Her closing remarks were taken from the quotation of U. W. Beacher "It is one of the surest tests of friendship to tell your friend his faults. So to love a man that you cannot bear to see a stain upon him, and to speak painful truth through loving words, that is friendship."

The meeting was closed with the Ritual.

Refreshments were served by Miss Chaney assisted by Miss Sue Heminger.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Cox and will be the "Ritual of Jewels."

For Sunday breakfast serve a "different" fruit combination: fresh orange sections (and their juice) garnished with drained canned figs.

Teenage Dance Saturday Night

The next dance for teenagers, sponsored by the Washington C. H. Junior Chamber of Commerce, is scheduled for 8 until 11 p.m. Saturday in the American Legion hall, 212 N. Fayette St.

Although this will be the third of the Jaycee-sponsored dance for the community's young people, it will be the first held in the Legion Hall. The others were held in the Youth Building at the Fairground.

Dick Meyer, co-chairman with John Boylan, emphasized that "this is not a money-making project... it's just part of the Jaycee community service."

He said the 50 cents admission for singles and 75 cents for couples will go into the Jaycee dance fund, and if there is any left after expenses are paid, it will be used to provide "extras" for future dances.

The Cavaliers, a combo of local young men, will provide the music Saturday night.

Meyer said arrangements have been completed with Legion officers to hold dances for teenagers in the Legion Hall once a month as long as the interest and attendance warrants. They will be on Saturday nights.

All the dances will be chaperoned by from four to six Jaycees and their wives.

When you're cooking spaghetti and want to keep the long strands unbroken, add them to a large kettle of boiling salted water. As the part of the strands under water soften, you'll be able to push in the other ends.

VITAMINS FOR CHILDREN—Boys and girls at the Children's Home are now going on a regular course of vitamins. Charles W. Rath, a representative of the Upjohn Co. gave Mrs. Ruth Linger, executive secretary of the county's Child Welfare Board, a box containing 8,000 vitamin tablets, which will be given daily to the approximately 30 boys and girls at the home. Although vitamins have been given to some of the children at times in the past, Mrs. Linger said this is the first time for a general continuous daily program for all the children. Rath said the vitamins would have cost approximately $150 if purchased at retail.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Wednesday, Nov. 7, the 311th day of 1962. There are 54 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1805, explorers Meriwether Lewis and William Clark sighted the Pacific Ocean at the mouth of Columbia River, establishing proof that the United States was a vast continent.

On this date:

In 1811, the battle of Tippecanoe was fought.

In 1874, Harper's Weekly carried Thomas Nast's first cartoon depicting an elephant as the symbol of the Republican Party.

In 1917, Communist rule was established over Russia when Lenin and Trotsky overthrew the government of Alexander Kerensky.

In 1944, Franklin Roosevelt was elected to an unprecedented fourth term as President.

In 1954, Russian jet planes shot down a U.S. Air Force reconnaissance plane over Japan's Hokkaido Island.

Today's birthdays:
Evangelist Billy Graham is 44. Actor Dean Jagger is 59.

Thought for today:

Every genuine work of art has as much reason for being as the earth and the sun—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Land Mine Foils Escape Try In East Germany

HELMSTEDT, Germany (AP)—An East German mine ended the flight today of a family trying to escape Communist rule, West German border guards reported.

West German guards said they watched about 20 East German guards run to the spot in the half-light and lead away the sobbing children and wife of a man who had apparently been injured in the mine explosion.

2 More West German Divisions Given NATO

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany will assign two more army divisions to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in the next few weeks, the Defense Ministry said today.

This will bring to 11 the number of West German divisions raised for common Western defense.

Moonshining Said Major U.S. Racket

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Moonshining, says a beverage manufacturer, is one of the biggest rackets in the nation.

Thomas J. Donovan, president of Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., told a beverage makers convention Monday that illegal liquor production has averaged 50 million gallons a year for the last 10 years.

"Enforcement officials seize an average of 20,000 stills each year," Donovan said.

The illegal manufacturers have cheated state, federal and local governments out of $7 billion in tax levies in the same period, he added.

An estimated 150 persons have died from poison moonshine and thousands more have been hospitalized during the period, he said.

Nursing Home Cost Deplored In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—It costs at least $260 a month to get into a decent nursing home, and even at that price top-notch accommodations are not always assured, says Dr. Joseph B. Stocklen, Cuyahoga County controller of chronic illness and tuberculosis.

He made the remark Monday as a panelist at a meeting on nursing homes sponsored by the Committee of Older Persons of the Cleveland Welfare Federation. The statement was based on a recent survey by his office of nursing homes here, he said.

He said the minimum cost at a private nursing home is $160 a month and the maximum is $262, while in philanthropic homes costs range from $50 to $913 a month and average $415.

"Can you imagine a man with average income—about $6,000 a year—paying this?" he asked.

Holystone is a soft kind of sandstone used by sailors for scrubbing and cleaning the decks of ships.

Fayette Countians Help In Research Project

Cancer Prevention Study Now Entering Third Year

The world's largest cancer study with human beings as subjects, including 244 residents of Fayette County, enters its third year amidst predictions of eventual success.

The American Cancer Society's huge Cancer Prevention Study is a six-year research project involving 1,078,000 persons throughout the U. S. and is aimed at identifying environmental and other factors related to the development of cancer.

Although significant findings for the entire study will require several years, some preliminary results have been found which are proving helpful in shaping public education programs about cancer.

In analyzing a sampling of returns from the original questionnaires, Dr. E. Cuyler Hammond, ACS statistical research director who is in charge of the study nationally, found that older persons were less likely to report their physical complaints to doctors than younger persons.

It was also found that in reporting cancer's danger signals, the more highly educated saw a doctor about their symptoms more frequently than those with little education. Persons with college educations were also more likely to have an annual checkup, the study showed.

THE REPORT from Dr. Hammond was released by Mrs. William Fletcher, local research coordinator who praised volunteer researchers who have helped to collect the data upon which the study is based.

Mrs. Fletcher said: "The 15 American Cancer Society volunteer researchers from this county who have worked to make this study a success deserve the gratitude of all Americans. Their part in this mammoth project has been a vital one and when the results are known we will all realize to what great extent we are in their debt."

In the report to the local American Cancer Society Unit Dr. Hammond described the project, started Oct. 1, 1959, as "highly successful."

"As we start the third follow-up," Dr. Hammond said, "it is extremely important that the high rate of efficiency so far demonstrated by these volunteers be continued. For the great majority of units that have completed their work relatively early, we have successfully followed 98.5 per cent of the subjects originally enrolled in the study."

ALL THE DATA collected about these people, Dr. Hammond explained, has been translated into figures and placed on punch cards. It was then transferred to magnetic tape for analysis by a digital computer. This electronic "brain" processes in seconds calculations which would require months of labor of statisticians. So far the data collected, when processed for the computer, will contain more than 300 million digits of information.

Each of the subjects in the study answered a long confidential questionnaire, providing information about his personal living habits, environment, history of illnesses and other data which may provide clues as to differences among persons who develop cancer and those who do not.

These answers were so extensive that they required four punch cards for each subject, a total of 4,315,589 cards, all of which must be processed for the computer.

"We will continue to analyze some preliminary data from the study as time goes on," Dr. Hammond said. "As we go into this third year of follow-up of what is anticipated as a six-year project, it is extremely important that we maintain the same high rate of successful follow-up. If we do so, I have every reason to hope that it will result in the saving of many lives from cancer."

British Survey Ship Finds New Ocean Deep

LONDON (AP)—The Royal Navy survey ship Cook reported today it has found a deeper spot—37,782 feet—than any previously recorded in an ocean.

In a radio message to the Admiralty, the Cook said the depth was determined by echo-sounding equipment in the Mindanao Trench east of the Philippines.

This compares with the previous record depth of 36,204 feet registered by echo sounders aboard the Soviet research ship Vityaz in the Pacific Ocean's Marianas Trench in 1959.

Only Russia, Canada, China and the United States exceed Brazil in size.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Frequently we hear of kindly acts which endear one neighbor to another and bind friendship with ties which can never be broken.

Many of these helpful acts which occur when someone has met with misfortune and is unable to carry on his farm work. Friends flock in with modern farm equipment and sometimes in a single day take care of the pressing farm work and prevent what might be a heavy loss to the man unable to carry on for the time being.

The pioneers and those who came after them held their neighbors in high regard as long as those neighbors displayed the friendly, helpful spirit which characterized all worthwhile folks of their day.

No task was too difficult, and no need too great to be met by the ever ready neighbors, who often neglected their own work temporarily to assist someone in need. Many of the new arrivals came into this area without funds and with little personal property to help them.

No night was too dark, stormy or cold for the good neighbor to go to the assistance of the one in need. If the family was hungry, the neighbors saw to it that they were fed and if they needed clothing neighbors assisted.

In those days doctors were few and far between, and home remedies and careful attention on the part of those with knowledge of helping care for the sick were the only aids to health available.

When illness struck a family, neighbors came in to help, and if necessary to keep watch at the bedside throughout the night while members of the family obtained badly needed rest from their long vigils.

Regular events among the neighbors in bygone years were the log rollings, house and barn building, husking bees which brought many folks together for work and frolic. And usually the jugs of home made corn whiskey were in evidence.

Good neighbors loaned their tools and equipment, and rendered every assistance possible to make life more bearable.

At that time of few conveniences, no roads or bridges worthy of the name, and the hardest kind of work the common lot of everyone, neighbors meant more than mere friends, and they depended on each other, helped each other, and if necessary, fought for each other. For friendship, as exemplified in neighborliness, was one of the biggest things in the lives of the early folks in the community.

Throughout the years this same spirit of neighborliness, which was so deeply rooted from the start, has passed from generation to generation, so that the Good Neighbor is still one of the greatest things in life.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Samuel Insull charged with a gigantic swindle in Chicago, was arrested in Athens, Greece, and was to be returned to the U. S. for prosecution.

Congressman Charles Brand announced his switch from the Republican candidate for president, to Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democrat, declaring his country came before party, and Roosevelt was the logical man. His announcement was a bombshell in Republican ranks.

Hillsboro was flooded with counterfeit half dollars during a carnival in that city.

Nearly five weeks had elapsed without a single fire alarm being turned in to the local department.

The concrete bridge over Rattlesnake Creek was nearing completion. It took the place of a steel structure on Route 62.

New auto tags were to be ready by Dec. 1, and were to be affixed to motor vehicles by Jan. 1.

Three hog thieves were arrested in Clinton County and sentenced to prison. Some of the stolen hogs were sold in Washington, C. H.

The school muddle in Madison Twp., which had been under way nine weeks was continuing. It was caused by the board of education failing to make a place for Howard Grimm, who had been employed to teach the White Oak School. When the centralized school at Madison Mills was opened, and the White Oak School abandoned, Grimm opened the school anyway and had 23 pupils attending.

Asbury Moon, 86, prominent retired farmer of Jefferson Twp., died.

W. E. Sturgeon and several others reported seeing and hearing the famous "Belled Buzzard" which had been reported in many states over a period of 15 or 20 years. The buzzard alighted within 200 yards of the Sturgeon Home at former Sturgeon Mills, five miles south of Washington C. H. It had a sheep bell about its neck.

Much vegetation had escaped the few frosts up to the present, and many flowers were still blooming.

Roy Hagler returned from Texas with 1,800 head of Hereford calves to be fed off by himself and son; Charles Hagler and Wilby Hyde. It was the largest shipment of Texas calves ever brought into Ohio.

The 200 foot smokestack of the Dayton Power and Light Co. was being given a preservative coat, and small fissures filled.

Voters defeated the proposed merger of the Common Pleas and Probate courts here.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected President by a huge majority. Mrs. Edward Pfeiffer, 63, died here.

An all time record number of voters was cast in Fayette County, the total being 9,399.

The Macon dirigible being built at Akron, for the U. S. Navy, sister ship of the Akron, was to be ready within a year. It was to be lighter than the Akron, 785 feet long, with four 480 horse power engines.

Six were killed and several wounded in gun battles during election in Kentucky.

A great storm swept Cuba, killing 1,000, injuring many others and causing heavy property damage.

Farmers Given Advice On Nuclear Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has issued a leaflet alerting rural residents to the problems of fire resulting from nuclear attack, and suggesting methods of meeting this emergency.

In a foreword, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said "our defense responsibilities are a definite part of all current programs, with equal priority with the programs themselves." He added:

"Protection and survival of those living in rural areas, along with crops, livestock, and other agricultural resources, is vital. In addition, some rural families may be faced with heavy responsibilities for sheltering and feeding survivors, bringing fires under control and helping to rehabilitate nearby areas."

The leaflet asserts that preparation is the key word to the national Civil Defense program. It describes the damage a nuclear attack can cause on farms, woodlands and rural communities. It lists measures for avoiding or reducing this damage.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Australia is expected to import more cotton this season than the 83,000 bales imported in 1961-62, the Agriculture Department said today.

Imports last year were 4 per cent above the previous year. And the U.S. share of the Australian cotton import market rose to 61,000 of the 80,000 bales, or 73 per cent of the total imports.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government may step up sales of surplus sorghum grains during the winter and spring.

This possibility is seen in the fact that government stocks of corn under a feed grain production reduction program started in 1961 have declined more than sorghum stocks.

The Agriculture Department is authorized to sell feed grains for the dual purpose of obtaining funds to pay farmers for reducing feed grain acreages and for stabilizing prices which might otherwise increase in reflection of reduced production.

Theaters Looking With Hope To Do-It-Yourself Producers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Product-starved theater exhibitors can look with some hope on the new do-it-yourself trend of film production in New York.

With Hollywood production on a constant decline for a decade, theater owners have had to scramble for new sources of movies. It's too early to detect a new wave of Eastern filming, but there was evidence of such a possibility at the sixth annual San Francisco Film Festival.

The sole American feature entry was a modest film called "David and Lisa." It is modest only in its scope—a case history of two emotionally upset young people—and in its cost—$20,000.

The film's artistic merits were rated high by the festival audience. It has been shown only once before—at the Venice Film Festival, where it was named best film by a new director.

Producer Paul Heller explained how the film came to be.

Frank Perry, a stage director, and his wife Eleanor, a script writer, had come across a fictionalized case history by Theodore Rubin, M.D. They bought the rights, and Mrs. Perry fashioned a screen play. They showed it to Teller, a longtime friend who had been a television and film art director.

"Frank said he'd like to direct it as a movie, because he had never directed a film before," said Heller. "I decided I would produce it, because I had never produced a film before."

The Record-Herald Wednesday, Nov. 7, 1962 9 Washington C. H., Ohio

"The next thing we needed was money. We decided to go after it just as you would finance a Broadway play. Instead of having script readings as they do in searching for play angels, we sent out scripts. We had 450 of them copied."

"Strangely, those who might back Broadway shows had no interest in financing a movie. So we had to come up with an entirely new list."

These included doctors, dentists and anyone else Heller and the Perrys could think of. Contributions ranged from $300 to $15,000. They found a large mansion

"Jack, I can hardly keep up...all these improvements the phone company's making on November 18th...like these 7-number phone numbers! You know...

every single house and business in the area will get one.

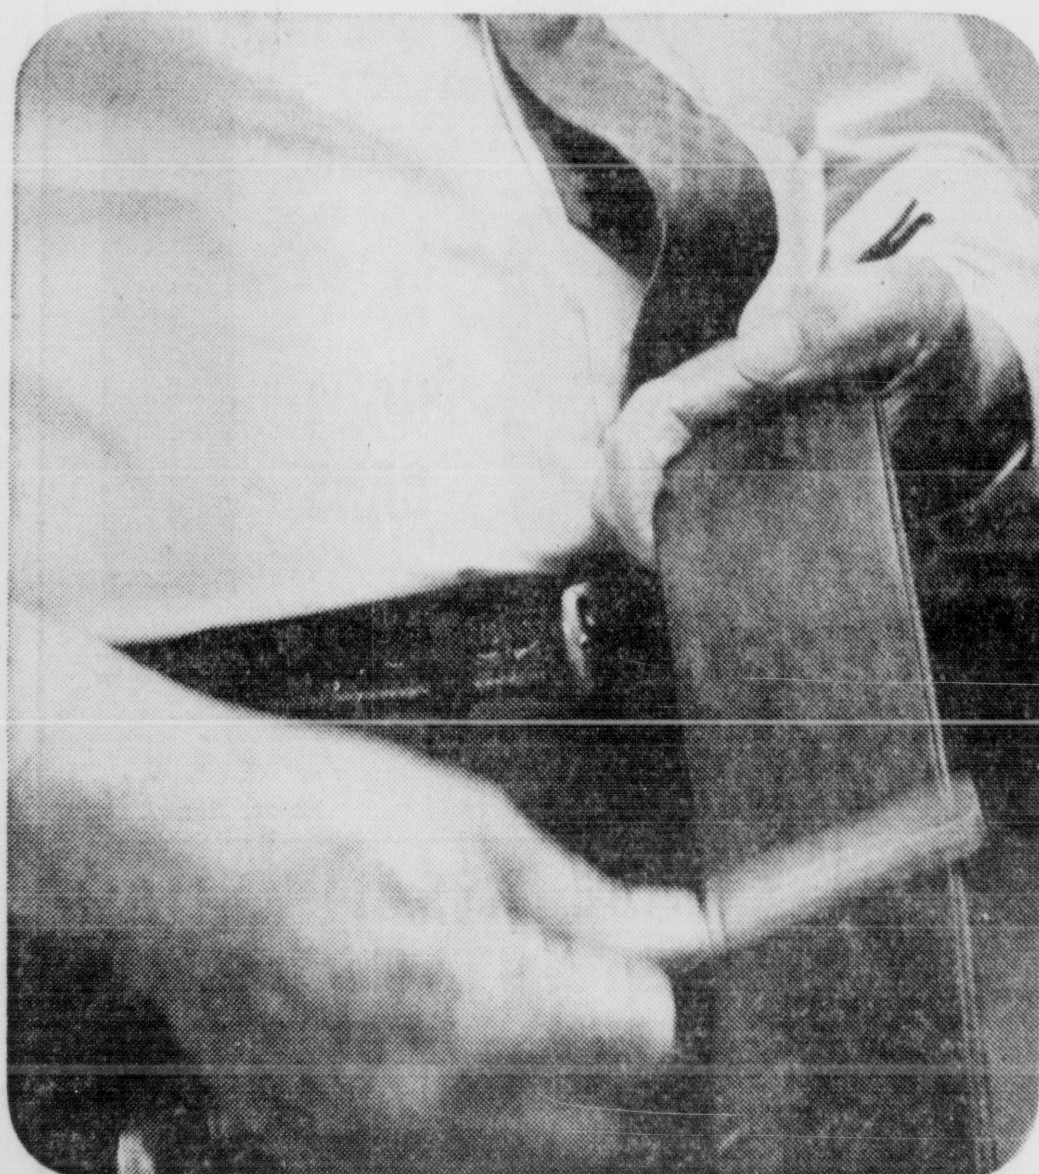

Paul Dougherty tells me the new 7-number phone numbers are permanent numbers...

now that's a good thing, cause...

if you move to a new house in Washington Court House, you keep your old number. Or say you're a businessman with your advertising all set up... people know your number...then, if you move your business, your old phone number goes with you. I think permanent numbers are a real improvement, Jack...

Ohio To Gain More Seats In Congress

The victories by Abele and Bolton were in two of the three key districts the GOP was making a determined effort to gain. The third was the 9th District (Lucas County) where Democrat Thomas L. Ashley won his fourth term by defeating State Rep. Martin Janis. The Republican hopes with Janis stemmed from his four terms in the legislature, the most from that county for a Republican since the Civil War, and his endorsement by the Toledo Blade.

The Democratic Party listed four districts—the 6th, 13th, 14th and 15th—as those in which it hoped to gain ground. However, only Secrest in the 15th was successful.

In the 6th (Adams, Brown, Clermont, Fayette, Highland, Pickaway, Pike, Ross and Scioto counties), Republican William H. Harsha won his second term, defeating television announcer Jerry Raser. The district, the largest geographically in the state, had been controlled for 20 years by Democrat James G. Polk until his death in April 1959.

In the 13th (Sandusky, Erie, Lorain and Huron counties), J. Grant Keys failed in an effort to parlay his state cabinet post of highway safety director into a victory over Republican incumbent Charles A. Mosher. Mosher, 56, is editor and publisher of the weekly Oberlin News-Tribune. His victory is his second to Congress.

In the 14th (Medina and Summit counties), Republican William H. Ayres won his seventh term in Congress by overcoming the determined bid by Oliver Ocasek, college professor and former state senator. Ocasek's popularity was the Democrats' main hope. In most of the other 14 districts where incumbents won, it was a return of veteran congressmen.

In the 19th (Mahoning and part of Trumbull counties), 76-year-old Michael J. Kirwan, Democratic dean of Ohio congressmen, won his 14th term by defeating William V. Williams. Kirwan has been a member of Congress since 1937.

Right behind him in years of service is Republican Clarence J. Brown, in the 7th District (Champaign, Clark, Clinton, Greene, Logan, Madison, Union and Warren counties). Brown, 67, defeated 28-year-old Robert A. Riley for his 13th congressional victory.

In the 20th District (part of Cuyahoga County), Michael A. Feighan, a Democrat, returns to Washington for his 11th term. He defeated Leonard G. Richter.

In the other races in which incumbents won:

2nd (part of Hamilton County) — Donald Clancy, Republican defeated Harry A. Sand for a second term.

3rd (Butler and Montgomery counties) — Paul F. Schenck, Republican, defeated Martin A. Evers for his seventh term.

4th (Allen, Auglaize, Darke, Mercer, Miami, Preble and Shelby counties) — William M. McCulloch, Republican, defeated Marjorie C. Struna for his ninth term.

5th (Defiance, Fulton, Henry, Ottawa, Paulding, Putnam, Van Wert, Williams and Wood counties) — Delbert L. Latta, Republican, defeated William T. Hunt for his third term.

8th (Crawford, Hancock, Hardin, Marion, Morrow, Seneca and Wyandot counties) — Jackson E. Betts, Republican, defeated Morris Laderman, for his 7th term.

12th (Franklin County) — Samuel L. Devine, Republican, defeated Paul D. Cassidy for his third term.

16th (Stark, Tuscarawas and Wayne counties) — Frank T. Bow Republican, defeated Ed Witmer, for his seventh term.

17th (Ashland, Coshocton, Delaware, Holmes, Knox, Licking and

DOWNED U-2—This is the wreckage of the plane the Cubans claim is the U.S. Air Force U-2 shot down over Cuba. Air Force Maj. Rudolph Anderson Jr., was the pilot who was killed.

Election Fails To Give JFK Stronger Aid

Nowhere in the topsy-turvy voting results was there any clear indication that the Cuban crisis had affected the outcome.

There was conflicting evidence as to whether President Kennedy's personal popularity rubbed off on Democratic candidates. But there was no doubt that he had failed in his over-all objective of replacing enough congressional Republicans with Democrats of his own stripe so that his programs could be accelerated.

The Republican march to the statehouses in the big industrial states ran smack into a Democratic resurgence in the Midwest, once regarded as a Republican heartland.

In Nebraska, Democratic Gov. Frank B. Morrison defeated Republican Fred A. Seaton, who served as secretary of the interior in the Cabinet of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In Minnesota, Democrat Earl F. Rolvaag held a lead over Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen.

Democrats knocked off veteran GOP Sen. Alexander Wiley in Wisconsin. They elected a governor in Iowa.

They upset GOP Sen. Homer E. Capehart in Indiana. Their candidate led in the battle for a Republican Senate seat in South Dakota. A Democrat unseated Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota, keynote of the 1960 Republican National Convention.

Rockefeller propelled himself into the front rank of contenders for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination by winning a second term. But his margin over his Democratic opponent, Robert M. Morgenthau, seemed likely to be less than the 573,000 bulge by which Rockefeller won in 1958.

GOP Sen. Jacob K. Javits ran ahead of Rockefeller on the basis of a strong showing in New York City.

In Texas, former Secretary of the Navy John Connally won the governorship, rebuffing the bid of Republican Jack Cox.

The election was replete with surprises.

Oklahoma elected Henry Ballmon as its first Republican governor. Democratic Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney was pressed hard by his GOP opponent, B. Hayden Crawford, but won re-election.

New Hampshire, which hasn't had a Democratic governor in 40 years elected Democrat John W. King as its new chief executive.

GOP Gov. Wesley Powell, defeated in the primary by John Pillsbury, supported King in the general election. King's billboards and literature lacked any identification of him as a Democrat.

Richland counties) — John M. Ashbrook, Republican, defeated Robert W. Levering for his second term.

18th (Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison and Jefferson counties) — Wayne L. Hays, Democrat, defeated John J. Carrigg for his eighth term.

21st (part of Cuyahoga County) — Charles A. Vanik, Democrat, defeated Leodis Harris for his fifth term.

23rd (part of Cuyahoga County) — William E. Minshall, Republican, defeated Emil C. Weber for his fifth term.

Republicans also lost one of New Hampshire's two Senate seats.

This was part of a Democratic swing in traditionally Republican New England which carried Philip H. Hoff to the governorship of Vermont. It was the first time in 108 years that a Democrat was elected to that office.

There were conflicting signs on the effectiveness of Kennedy's campaigning.

One of the first incumbent senators to win re-election was Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, former Republican national chairman. Kennedy campaigned twice in Kentucky, plugging for Democratic candidates.

In Colorado, Kennedy's backing didn't prevent the defeat of Gov. Stephen L.R. McNichols and Democratic Sen. John A. Carroll. In Wyoming, Democratic Sen. Joe Hickey, who had Kennedy's backing, lost.

Kennedy did his bit for Rep. Sidney R. Yates who lost to Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen in Illinois. The President also plugged for State Sen. Richard Richards, defeated by deputy GOP Senate Leader Thomas H. Kuchel in California.

On the other hand, the President campaigned for Birch E. Bayh Jr. in Indiana and boosted Democratic Gov. Gaylord A. Nelson who beat Wiley in the Wisconsin Senate race.

Eisenhower had an in-and-out record of results of his campaigning for Republican candidates.

In Maryland, where Eisenhower campaigned, Democrat Daniel Brewster won a Republican Senate seat and Democratic Gov. J. Millard Tawes was re-elected. The former president didn't help the Republicans much in Massachusetts.

But he could point to New York and Pennsylvania as states in which he had campaigned that gave the Republicans some satisfactory results.

With California's big total yet to be heard from, results in the House races were spotty. Republicans made a slight dent in the South by gaining seats in Texas and two each in Ohio and Utah.

Democrats won Republican seats in Connecticut, Minnesota and Ohio.

In Iowa, Harold E. Hughes, a Democrat, defeated Republican incumbent Gov. Norman A. Erbe. In New Mexico, Democrat Jack M. Campbell won over Republican Gov. Edwin L. Mechem. In Hawaii, Democrat John A. Burns defeated Republican Gov. William F. Quinn.

Ohio's Governor-Elect Noted For His Enthusiasm On Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A coal miner's son who began his climb up the political ladder as a ward committeeman in Columbus is Ohio's new Republican governor.

It was a long, tough and often discouraging struggle for the 53-year-old James Allen Rhodes to reach — finally — the success he had dreamed about since a boy in the hills of Southern Ohio's Jackson County.

But his victory in Tuesday's election — by a whopping margin over the politically astute Democratic incumbent, Michael V. DiSalle, must have been particularly sweet — coming it did after one of the most bitterly fought campaigns in Ohio history.

The candidates had traded stiff punches for months, with DiSalle getting in some of the sharpest blows. One was allegations of irregularities in Rhodes' operations as auditor of state. This one finally landed in the lap of the Franklin County grand jury. The jury reported only last Saturday night that it found no illegal operations.

Rhodes' office had been accused of illegally charging subdivisions rental for adding machines used by examiners. Rhodes claimed the money from the rentals was applied to purchase of new machines and perfectly legal. At one time Rhodes' income tax returns had been questioned by leading Democrats.

Rhodes slugged back. Political infighting was nothing new for the trim, still youthful-looking 6-footer.

He's a pipe-smoker, energetic, capable of arousing enthusiasm in those about him, and an ardent sports fan who has served two terms as president of the Amateur Athletic Union. He represented the United States in the Olympic Games in London in 1948 and helped found the Pan-American games.

Rhodes was eight when his miner father died. He worked after school at odd jobs to help his mother, now dead, and two sisters maintain their home. Later he graduated from high school in Springfield, and, for a short period before entering politics, he attended Ohio State University.

From ward committeeman he moved into two terms as Columbus city auditor and then as Columbus mayor for three terms.

At this election he was rounding out 10 years and three terms as state auditor.

In his spare time he co-authored three books including "The Trial of Mary Todd Lincoln."

In 1954 he ran for governor against now U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche and took a good beating. He had tried but lost a bid for the gubernatorial nomination in 1950.

Rhodes' most enthusiastic supporters all along have been his wife, Helen, and daughters Suzanne, 19; Sandra, 17, and Sharon, 12.

Telling a cheering crowd in his office late on election night that "we have tonight won a resounding mandate to get Ohio moving," he promised to do just this, adding:

"All that is on my mind at this moment is to create a better Ohio during the next four years and be the best governor Ohio has ever had."

He'll have some monumental problems. And just about everyone who knows him will agree on one thing: He'll never lack enthusiasm for the job.

The number of Indians in America at the time of Christopher Columbus' arrival has been estimated at about 1,115,000.

3-Year-Old's School Days Ended By Mother

CINCINNATI (AP) — Randy Stears was back with his parents today after his premature entry to classes at Woodward High School.

His mother, Mrs. Rosemary Stears, was reunited Tuesday with the 3-year-old boy she thought had been left securely with a baby sitter. The sitter, 16, went to school Monday after caring for the boy since Saturday night, and took young Randy with her. Mrs. Stears had gone to search for her husband, Everett, and found him in Dayton, looking for a job.

Teachers To Be Polled On Value Of Powwows

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Leading district educators say they will poll teachers to determine if they should continue to participate in the annual North East Ohio Teachers Association convention in Cleveland.

The educators have indicated there is dissatisfaction at all levels about the meeting. Complaints were heard that the meeting last week was not as productive as it should have been.

BOOSTERS CLASS MEETS

The Boosters Class of the Church of Christ met Friday evening. The president, James Patterson, opened the meeting, and Jack Fawley conducted the devotions. The group voted to send a Christmas gift to their missionary project school. The hosts, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs, served refreshments to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Smith and children, Eddie, Jimmy and Sharon; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fawley and daughters, Susan and Carolyn; Mrs. Ronald Huffman and daughter, Rhonda; and the children of the hosts, Diane and Jeffery Patterson and Susan, Jimmy, Michael and Brian Combs.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS

The Loyal Daughters Class of the Church of Christ will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Thena Eckle, with Mrs. Stella Plummer as co-hostess. Mrs. Dora Kaufman will be in charge of the devotions, and Mrs. Bessie Tysor and Mrs. Jack Fawley will have the social hour.

FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bradstreet had as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilson, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watling and sons, Brent and Steve, of Newark. Other members of the family present for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and daughters, Marilyn and Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and children, Danny and Martha Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson and daughters, Diane, Nicky and LuAnn. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Crouse, of Mount Sterling and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Haines of Washington C. H.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Alda Allen visited over the weekend with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, and their son, Robert, Xenia.

Mrs. Hazel Combs spent two days last week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Combs and sons, Barry and Douglas, Bellbrook.

Mrs. Ricca Snoddy visited for a few days last week, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson and daughters, Louella, Betty and Bonnie.

Rocket Motor Loading Slated

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — The Ravena arsenal, nearly idle recently, will be converted in part to a base for loading rocket motors with solid fuel by the Hercules Powder Co. of Wilmington, Del., a company spokesman says.

He added that 300 persons would be employed there once the facilities were ready.

The spokesman said a contract between Hercules and the U.S. Air Force was being negotiated.

Rep. Robert E. Cook said the project "could be the opening edge to bringing the missile industry into Ohio."

About six months will be required to change facilities at the 23,000-acre arsenal to meet Hercules' needs, the company spokesman said.

Hercules now produces the third stage of the Minuteman missile for the Air Force and the second stage of the advanced U.S. Navy Polaris sea-to-ground missile.

Neither of these projects would be involved, the spokesman said. The company also loads solid fuels into several rockets used by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Cook said he had been in contact with Hercules and the Defense Department during the negotiations and understood that an agreement had been reached but a lease had not yet been signed.

Needles Driven Into Girl To Prove Love

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—"He told me, if you are in pain, I'll hold you close and comfort you and he made me promise not to tell anyone what he had done."

That's how an 18-year-old high school girl explained Monday, in a statement to police, the presence of 11 needles deeply imbedded in her body.

Her boyfriend, who is 17, said in his statement: "She said she would let me stick needles in her to prove how much she loved me."

He said he first stuck the girl a year ago. The latest was inserted last month.

Surgeons removed two needles from the girl's abdominal cavity and another from her right leg Saturday. Five more are in her chest area and three are in her stomach. She is in satisfactory condition, however.

Severe leg pains forced the girl to consult a physician. X-rays revealed the needles.

Names of the youngsters were not released. The boy is not in custody and no charges have been filed.

Retirement Center Near To Reality

CLEVELAND (AP)—Firelands Retirement Centers, planned $4.5 million housing - for - the - aged facility in Lorain County, has moved a step closer to reality with the announcement here of proposed sites for initial units.

The project, governed by a local, autonomous, non - profit organization, was initiated by the United Church of Christ last December.

The Rev. Ronald S. Larsen, executive director, said Monday construction would begin in a year or less on:

—A core unit near the new Lorain Hospital. It will have a common dining room and health - care section, plus the project's administrative job.

—"Satellite" apartment complexes, each with a kitchenette, in four locations: near Hotel Antlers, Lorain; a lakefront location in Avon Lake; in Oberlin, and in Vermilion.

An additional site in Elyria is yet to be chosen. All are subject to zoning and city approval.

Non-members and church members alike will be eligible as occupants, the Rev. Mr. Larsen said. The centers are intended to care for some 400 persons.

Sausage-Pancake Supper Is Tuesday Night At Good Hope

GOOD HOPE — Members of the Good Hope Lions Club — all 54 of them — are getting ready for the club's second pancake and sausage supper of the year.

Serving will start at 5 p.m. next Tuesday on the first floor of Wayne Hall and continue until everyone has had his fill, Dick Fenton and Meade Noble, general chairmen, said.

One thing seems certain: They won't run out of sausage or pancakes.

The club has bought five hogs, weighing an estimated 300 pounds each — and all of that meat is going to be made into sausage.

Earl Rea and Bill Kearney are the chief pancake cooks, but the co-chairmen said they will have a free hand in recruiting assistants.

Jim Hagler, the immediate past president, is the chief chef of the sausage frying crew.

The co-chairmen assured that, should the night be chilly as well it might be in mid-November, no one will have to wait outside for a vacant seat at one of the tables. The second floor room will be warm and comfortable, they said.

President L. C. (Jack) Hoppes has seen to it that every Lion has tickets for the supper to be sold in advance; this is just to give the chefs some idea of how many to prepare for.

At past suppers, between 500 and 600 have been served. Preparations are being made to serve at least 600 Tuesday night.

Proceeds from the supper will go into the club's sight-saving and welfare fund.

Boys and girls who live at the Children's Home have been invited to the supper as guests of the club.

Another Secret Moon Is Lofted By U.S. Crew

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The Air Force has launched another military satellite—one it doesn't want to talk about.

The satellite was launched here Monday. The only word from the Air Force was that it was carried aloft by a Thor-Agena B rocket combination. Such a unit is used for experimental Discoverer satellites and to test equipment for secret craft like the Midas and Samos "sky spy" surveillance satellites.

AP Guesspert Picks Wildcats Over Badgers

Northwestern Seen
As Bound For Trip
To Colorful Rose Bowl

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) —How can you see the forest when the trees always get in your line of sight? There probably are as many upsets hidden on this weekend's college football schedule as last week. The most recent visit to Upset Gulch resulted in 40 correct guesses with 14 setbacks for 746.

Here goes for this week:
Northwestern over Wisconsin: The Evanston Wildcats had their sinking spell last Saturday when they barely squeaked by Indiana. That should alert the country's No. 1 team never to take anyone lightly, least of all the potent Badgers.

Southern California over Stanford: Stanford has demonstrated its ability to spill highly rated foes but the Trojans' Pete Beathard won't let it happen here.

Alabama over Miami: A pitching battle between the Crimson Tide's Joe Namath and Miami's George Mira with the Alabama quarterback getting a little more help.

Mississippi over Chattanooga: The Rebels get a weekend vacation for beating LSU in their most recent outing.

Texas over Baylor: The Longhorns' midseason sinking spell is over.

Arkansas over Rice: Billy Moore gives Arkansas a definite edge.

Missouri over Colorado: Missouri has its eyes on the Orange Bowl.

Louisiana State over Texas Christian: Sonny Gibbs, towering TCU quarterback, brought Texas down with a single shot last year but doubt he can treat the LSU Tigers the same way.

Minnesota over Iowa: The Gopher line, anchored by Bobby Bell, is too potent for the Hawkeyes.

Penn State over West Virginia: Dave Robinson and Robert Kochman make an awesome twosome for the Pennsylvania Lions.

Oregon over Washington State: Where is there a better lineman than Oregon's Steve Barnett?

Georgia Tech over Florida State: Tech's squad on the rise since that Auburn debacle.

Duke over Maryland: This one is for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown.

Washington over California: Washington was shut out last week. That rarely happens to a Huskie and never twice in a row.

Army over Oklahoma State: The Oklahoma Staters picked the wrong year to make the trip east.

Also Bowling Green over Ohio University, Miami (Ohio) over Dayton and Ohio State over Indiana.

The Stars Say—By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

DO NOT count too much on the co-operation of others now. Your personal efforts, if determined ones, can be instrumental in overcoming barriers to your progress, however. Even if faced with complex situations, make every effort to avoid anxiety and control emotions.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that beginning in mid-December, and for two-and-a-half months thereafter, it would be advisable to capitalize on every available opportunity, since the aspects then will be fine for both job and financial gain. Not only will your own efforts and ideas be governed by excellent stimuli, but there is promise of co-operation from those in a position to help further your goals.

Another good period along these lines will occur in the middle of next year, with a really excellent opportunity to expand your interests indicated for September.

Early 1963 will be a good period for scientific and creative work; also for matters requiring a high degree of executive ability. If you get an opportunity to travel in December, January or mid-1963, do take advantage of it, since friendships and business contacts made then could prove of great value later.

Romance will be under fine aspects in late December; also between late May and late August.

A child born on this day will have a charming and lovable personality but may incline toward secretiveness.

Hungarian Chief Heads For Visit In Moscow

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar unexpectedly left for Moscow today on what Radio Budapest called a short visit.

Communist party chiefs from Poland, Bulgaria and East Germany made similar hurried trips to see Soviet Premier Khrushchev last week for what was described officially as an exchange of views on the world situation and "questions of mutual interest."

Racial Dispute Halts U.N. Food Conference

TUNIS (AP)—A 10-day U.N. conference on African food problems broke up Monday after four days because of a dispute over South Africa's race policy.

The conference, sponsored by the Food and Agricultural Organization, ended prematurely because South Africa insisted on attending over the protest of 22 newly independent African nations.

Judge Releases Ex-Patrolman; Board Ponders Reinstatement

Simon White Jr., former city patrolman, will not know before next Wednesday whether he will be reinstated on the force.

The City Civil Service Commission deferred until Nov. 14 its decision on his application for reinstatement after a two-hour hearing Wednesday morning in City Hall. White started serving a 10-day jail sentence for contempt of court at 2 p. m. Monday but was released at 4 p. m. Tuesday, when Judge John P. Case suspended the sentence following a hearing in his chambers.

WHITE was sentenced by Judge Case for failure to comply with conditions of a Common Pleas Court order issued last March in connection with a divorce petition filed by his wife, Virginia Lee White.

At a hearing Sept. 6, Judge Case gave White 60 days in which to make a "conscientious effort" to comply with an order to make regular payments on a home mortgage and meet other obligations. White was taken into custody Monday afternoon at police headquarters by Sheriff Don Thompson after submitting his resignation as a patrolman. He filed his application for reinstatement soon after his release from jail Tuesday afternoon.

IN THE court's entry filed Wednesday morning, Judge Case suspended the jail sentence on White's "representations to the court that he will make two monthly payments" on the home mortgage. The entry noted that the sentence was suspended "as if the defendant had purged himself of contempt of court." Costs of the case were assessed against White.

City Manager David Foell, Police Chief D. Vaiden Long and Clarence A. Christman Jr., city auditor and clerk of the commission, were at the hearing Wednesday morning, but neither recommended nor opposed White's reinstatement.

HOMER BIRELEY, commission chairman, said the reinstatement decision was postponed until next Wednesday's second hearing "in order to give him (White) a chance to straighten out his affairs."

The hearing on Mrs. White's petition for divorce is scheduled for next Tuesday.

Other members of the Civil Service Board are Tom Mark and Robert Boyd.

Voters Shun Blue Law Issue

Proposed Amendment Soundly Defeated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The only statewide issue on the ballot, a proposed amendment to Ohio's Constitution which attempted to define Sunday necessities, has been defeated.

The issue stems from the fact that, since 1831, Ohio laws have prohibited work on Sunday except labor which is "of necessity" or for charitable purposes.

But the courts while consistently upholding the ban, have varied in their interpretation of necessary work. The Lawson Milk Co., which operates 376 dairy stores in Ohio and which lost some court decisions on Sunday sales in Northeast Ohio, turned to initiative petition to get the issue on the ballot.

A spirited campaign seemed to generate surprisingly little public reaction.

The amendment would have prohibited the legislature from passing laws to prevent sale of 23 items and services on Sunday.

Among these were milk, milk products, food for humans or animals, prescription drugs, news papers and other news publications, radio and television broadcasting, gasoline and oil, public transportation, electric and natural gas service, other utilities and medical supplies.

Those favoring the proposal said it merely provided a guideline for future legislation in an effort to end uncertainties over so-called "blue laws."

Opponents argued that the amendment could result in Sunday operation of a number of retail establishments which courts in the past have said must be closed on Sunday. And, they contended, most items and services involved already are permitted, either through custom or court ruling.

The amendment needed a simple majority for approval and would have been effective immediately.

Lawson officials have contended that the legislature is not likely to take action on any general overhauling of Sunday laws, but there are indications the issue may come up again during the next session. Medley Hoch, president of Lawson, said today his company plans to try again to get legislative action.

One Minor Collision

City police investigated a minor two-car collision at noon Tuesday. The cars were driven by James Grimes, 50, Hamilton, and June Louise Kingery, 31, of 605 W. Elm St.

The accident occurred in the 100 block on E. Court St. when the two cars sideswiped. Little or no damage resulted to either vehicle and neither driver was cited.

DiSalle Still Has His Needle Sharpened For Jim Rhodes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said today his defeat for reelection would not end his pursuit of charges against the winner, Republican State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

At a jam-packed morning news conference, attended by Mrs. DiSalle and several cabinet members, the Democratic governor issued a prepared statement describing by some aides as a political bridge burner.

"I feel no different today than I did yesterday about my opponent," DiSalle said. "I have never had an opponent for whom I feel less respect and whom I feel is less qualified to serve the people of this state."

"During the campaign I questioned his integrity. If I had not believed it then I would not have raised the issue. The fact that my opponent has won an election does not change my beliefs."

"I am going to pursue the charges that have been made. I am going to try to enlist the efforts of every branch of the federal government to investigate his dealings. I am going to bring before the various other law enforcement agencies the violations of law that I believe exist."

DiSalle referred to claims that Rhodes made personal use of political campaign contributions and fraudulently charged local subdivisions rent for state-owned adding machines used by examiners to audit their books.

Rhodes said he was reimbursed for campaign travel from campaign funds and repaid a loan with interest.

He denied any wrong-doing in the adding machine case and asserted that purchase of 25 machines from rentals enabled his office to end the practice of charging rents at a savings to subdivisions.

Two nationally-known accounting firms said after an inspection of records that they found no law violations in the transactions and a Franklin County grand jury later refused to return an indictment on the basis of the governor's charges.

Another special grand jury investigating claims of a distiller that he paid to have his bourbon listed in state liquor stores is in recess until next week.

DiSalle said he had no plans to confer with Rhodes.

The governor said he would "substantially finish" his term to within a matter of a few hours. He added that he had nothing in mind as yet after he leaves office but made it clear that he does not want a State Supreme Court seat.

Trucker Forfeits Bond On 'Red Flag' Charge

Gilbert Marshall, 39, Montgomery, Pa., forfeited $25 bond in Municipal Court Wednesday for failing to appear on a traffic charge involving a commercial tractor he was operating on Rt. 62-S Monday.

Marshall allegedly failed to display a red flag on a six-foot extension of steel pipe from the rear of the vehicle. The law requires a red flag be displayed on such extensions over four feet long.

Adult Farm Course To Start Thursday

Adult education in agriculture, a yearly program for members of the Miami Trace Young Farmers Organization, will be initiated at 8 p. m. Thursday when the club holds its first meeting of this school year in the vocational agriculture room at Miami Trace High School, Norman Rodgers, advisor, announced.

Membership in the club is open to all prospective farmers under 30 years of age.

Rodgers, vocational agriculture teacher at Miami Trace, will assist a planning committee in arranging the lessons for each meeting, which always will be held on Thursday evenings. The planning committee and the club's officers for 1962 will be elected at the Thursday meeting.

Rodgers said the primary purpose of the organization is to offer opportunities in agriculture.

Camp Fire Girls Put Up Posters

Christmas Seal posters were placed in virtually every store window in the city's business district, and in many of the neighborhood stores, too, by a group of 15 Camp Fire Girls Tuesday afternoon.

The posters call attention to the annual Christmas Seal sale, sponsored by the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Contributions for the Christmas Seals are used to carry on the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

The 15 Camp Fire Girls who distributed the posters advanced from Dove Blue Bird group at the fly-up ceremony last spring. The group has not yet chosen its Indian name in the Camp Fire organization for older girls.

Mrs. Joe Shoemaker, Mrs. Dean Trimmer and Mrs. Sam Roush are the guardians. Members of the group, most of whom live in the Eastside School district, are Kathy Aills, Susan Brown, Debbie Bryan, Janelle Donahue, Patty Evans, Diane Kuhlwein, Bambi Sagar, Cathy Merritt, Jonelle Shoemaker, Lou Ann Southworth, Ronda Stephens, Brenda Trimmer, Shirley Wolfrom, Christy Enochs and Melody Roush.

Hospital Treats Accident Victims

Among those treated and released from Fayette Memorial Hospital during the past 24 hours were:

Mrs. Harry Seyfang, 523 E. Temple St., who cut the index finger of her right hand on a tin can; Debbie Pierce, 4½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce, 520 N. North St., who received a scalp laceration when she fell against a cabinet; and Gwendolyn Chandler, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Chandler, Greenfield, who cut her left knee when she ran into the draft door on a stove.
